Imagination

By Emma

The mind
Drifting away
Daydreaming
A light, gentle feeling
Relaxation
Hope for something new Something incredible
Potential in millions
Within imagination

The greatest idea
Shining a brilliant light
On the faces of The owners
Of the hands
Which are there to boost
The idea that has been Created Within
A mind`s imagination

Imagination

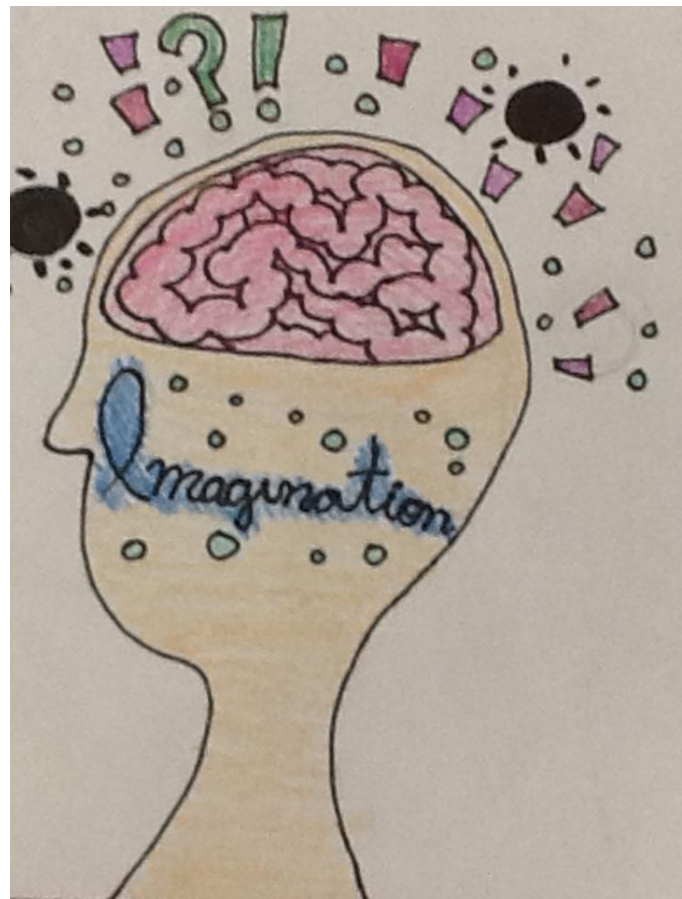

By Nana

An open door to a new world
Where a new adventure
As you step
Into a dream
A sudden burst
Of colorful flowers
Will enlighten
Your dream
Pink
Blue
And red
A world that
You made
With your mind

Quest for Confidence

By SeegZ

We have strength; we have power, the power to create,
We can make great eats cause possibility is Our plate, with our courage and our confidence
We'll break out of our shells, and that's cause if Your shy you will not do as well. Come on lets boost
Up our stability with our infinite capability,
Possibility slowing through our minds, ideas
Upon ideas of all creative kinds!

Friends

By Lata and Emma

Friends are a very kind word Friends warm you with a blanket of happiness

When you are cold
Friends are a fun bouncy house
That boosts your spirits
Higher than the sun

A friend is a missing piece of a puzzle
The puzzle is your life
Friends are moments you're always looking forward to
A fun event each day

Friends are an enthusiastic squirrel
Waiting for a nut to be given to it
Friends are a tissue to stop
The tears that stream down
Your cheeks
In times of sadness

Bullying

By Grace

If you're bullying that's just uncool
It will make the future you, feel like a fool
Asking yourself what am I doing?
The victim's eyes getting all gooey

If you think this is a game
Well that's just a shame
It's up to you
I'm giving you a clue
Here's some advice!
I hope you won't have to pay the price. $$$

A Garden
by Kyra

A garden, a garden
Where flowers grow
The wind shakes the leaves
Nice and slow
Water dripping
From their leaves
So the plants can drink
As they please
Breeze blowing
Plants growing
The garden is where I belong

The Joy of the Garden
By Lata

The garden is fun
It is full of joy
Whenever you come
And see the garden
Your heart will be filled with joy
The garden
Will always Be with you
In good times
And bad times
The garden is wonderful

The Great Oak Tree

By Simon

There once was a great oak tree
That was such a good sight to see
But a storm rumbled
And the tree tumbled
And the sky cackled with glee

Fall

By Emma

Scarlet, emerald
The burnt sun
Leaves falling
A lot of fun Jumping into Colorful piles
Red snow
Falling for miles

Seegz

We are fighting the fight,
Day and morning, dust and night,
Towards are plight,
We are creeping,
Like a wall, but is leaking
We are fighting for clean lighting,
With no adversary but ourselves,
Into darkness we shall delve,
Our situations rather dire,
We must avoid this natural fire.

MIST

By Seegz

Darkness, but it is not dark.
Blinding light and shadowy black mix,
It is night, yet it is day it is not dark.
Cold and dark envelop all, but no, it is not dark,
It is cold, cold and shadowy, but the shadows not black.
The cold no ice, darkness but not dark,
It is not wet, not dry, not light nor dark
Empty but not empty. Night, it is night
And freezing shadowy night but it is not cold, it is not dark Nothingness, it is empty
And so full, bright but so dark, cold but so mild
Mild, wet but so dry shadow the shadow
That casts, no light nor dark, it is not dark
It is nothing,
It is dark, no, it is not dark, it casts much shadow and black,
But it is not dark.
