Acrostic Poem

by Simon

Slide, swirl, swoosh

Love it!

Exciting

Down the hill

Dashing through the snow

Into the wet snow

No more unhappiness

Going faster, faster, faster!!

Excitement

By Simon

I'm suddenly free!

My heart dances with happiness,

my mind jumps with joy, my spirit spins with amazement.

Inside, I soar with excitement!

Winter's Inspiration

by Nana

Winter drops fell from the sky
Into the white winter wonderland Nothing but loud screams and happy shouts Together we were enjoying the Endless fun of winter's inspiration Reaching out to taste the white
Snow

Inspiration was in the air No boundaries in the Splendorous snowy fun
People smiling
In the winter wonderland Restless sleds
And the never ending fun of a Tremendous experience
In the cold Outside wonder with No boundaries

Spinning

by Lily B.

Getting ready Ready to sled
Mr. C gives me a spin down the hill
Spinning
Dizzy
Yelling "AAAAAAAAAAAA"
Will it stop?
It ends
Dizzy
Kids up the hill say "That was awesome"!
I come up
I go back to the end of the line Waiting for a turn again.

Falling Off
By Lily B.

White blurs fill the air Screams of joy everywhere Fresh snow being flung into the sky Snow blinds me
As I tumble Stumble
Crash
Burn and meet the hard white earth
As I fall off my sled

Winter Thrills

Sophie T.

Down a mountain
At five-hundred miles per hour Racing down a mountain
An endless mountain Or so it seems
We travel down this mountain Reluctantly and willingly
At the same time
Crash
Bang
Fall
We constantly trip
Turn Spin Twirl
We constantly go backwards Though we don't try Even when we seem to reach the end
We keep going
And going
And going
Until we are cold, wet, and dizzy
A loud, shrill noise signals the end We stop
And go into pure warmth
Sledding

Sledding The Life

By Henrik

The speed
The exhilaration
The wind tearing at my jacket
"This is living!" I thought as I slowly moved towards the brink of the hill.

I shot down the hill like a bullet.
Adrenaline pumping through my veins When I got halfway down a huge wave of nausea hit me.
I tumbled down the hill head over heels as I came to a stop on my back my whole body relaxed.
Why is the world spinning?

I looked; I saw a blur.
It was growing at an enormous rate.
How is that possible?
I then distinguished a grey and orange hat from the blur.
Then a sled so low to the ground
I could almost not see it then . . . BAM!
I was nailed to the ground once again.

Snow Slide

By Emilio

When I go outside there is a big snow slide.
I like to ride it 'cause it's basically a snow tide.
Surfing on the snow.
Don't want the snow to go.
Snow on my face just like a snow cake.
You know it's the kind you bake!
Now it's my turn.
Maybe there is something new to learn.
Like how to twist and turn.
Man! You just got Burned!

Go Again

by Sophie P

Aaaahhhhh!
Crash!
I tumble into the crunchy cold ground
My ear is plugged with snow Half my face is covered in cold, crackly ice I come up the hill, laughing and digging snow out of my ear Snnnniffff
Mr. C is laughing too
I reach the top and get in line to go again

Sledding

By Brooke

As I walked out of my school
I saw every fifth grader slip, sliding on sleds down the hill.
It was my turn to sled.
I started to go down the hill when Swoosh! snow splattered all over my face!
I thought that was actually fun!
I went down the hill a bunch more times.
I went on other people's sleds too, not just mine.
Some of the sleds I went on made me do flip flop into a flurry of people.
Those sleds made me think of the word - fun.
But some of the other sleds I tried out made me think of the word - boring.
Over all I had a great time!

Best Day Ever by Kai

“Why Change That?”
sledding
down the hill speeding on the jump flying through the air BOOM! on the ground
again?
over and over Really,
why change that

“This Is True Speed” we race down flying with great speed landing and still going This is true speed

The Rush

By Eja

The rush you get when you feel the winter breeze on your face when you step outside the door into the cold.

The rush you get when you go on your sled for the first time all winter.

The rush you get when you face plant into the snow after a wipeout on your sled.

The rush you get when you're on your sled with a friend, and you both are screaming your lungs out for no reason.

The rush you get when it's your last sled until it's time to go in, you make the most out of it.

The rush you get when you finally come inside to the warm building, and have some tasty hot chocolate.

Snowflakes

by Taylor

Winter fairies coming down from the sky
It's really fun and I know why

Snow is melting on your tongue giving you the shivers Snow is melting in boots that's because It's Winter

Suddenly snow is melting away saying a long goodbye No more snow is coming down from the sky

Cold White Winter

by Rachel

Children Running Sliding on their Stomachs
Like
Playful penguins Down
Down
Down the hill they go Push Calm Breeze Fast Faster Lightning fast Harsh Unforgiving
Cold
Snow hits your face White snow
Looks like heaven
When you face your Fears to try Joyful light Gleaming
In everyone outside
As I watch silently Smiling At The shrieks That Fill the air with happiness and Joy
Cold
White Winter
Is here
And it's going to be fun!

Winter's Inspiration

by Leo

As our classes went out to sled
My poor toes, they turned red And as we got out to the hill
My face truly did show thrill

My toes tingled, my fingers froze Everyone was ready and the sleds roze Excited kids flew down the hill
I think it's my turn, and sled I will!

Sledding

By Dani

I went outside and opened my eyes.
I saw kids bringing sleds running through snow beds! I ran too, thinking of all the fun I can do! Sleds were shared from NK, me, Simon, Ethan, Henrik and Chris! All of us, made a sled bus! But then we tried solo, and it wasn't too long before we went in... and drink HOT CHOCOLATE!

Winter's Inspiration

by Gena

Kids are sledding all around me,
Their cheers of joy astound me,
I cannot think of a better way,
To spend this lovely winter day.

Down the hill I run with friends,
We play in the cold white snow and then,
We jump and cheer, hoot and shout, Trading sleds round about.

As the untouched snow lay before us,
We think of what winter has in store for us.

by Lata

The rush you feel when you go outside on a cold, snowy, and breezy afternoon the rush you feel to go down the hill you hear the kids screaming all the way down then walking back up for another shot

Sledding Fun

by Lata

Sledding with friends having fun Loving it Exciting screams while going down Diving in for a fast one Diving in to get your sled Inviting people to join you on your sled Numb toes and fingers all around you are numb Going up and going down again and again until it is time to go into our warm and wonderful school

A Thick Line Of Kids Ran To The Hill

By Anna M

A thick line of kids ran to the hill.
I was with no doubt filled with thrill.
I ran and through myself onto my sled.
Down the glistening slope I sped.
All I could hear were kids' laughs.
People making brand new paths.
But me, I was silent, too happy to make a sound.
I succeeded in snowboarding, the wind nipped my ears.
When I finished my ears were filled with cheers.
So many happy sounds surrounding me.
So many kids screaming with glee.
The powdery snow was flattened into trails.
As I watched people's wipeouts, their CRAZY AWESOME fails!
Friends making snow angels in the pure white snow.
Mr. C gave me the wicked spin, like a pro.
In a blue saucer I spun really fast.
I whisked down the hill, it was a blast!
Having so much fun, with exactly ZERO stress.
Sipping hot chocolate, I say, sledding was a success!

Tomato faces

By Anna M

Outside, in the chilly air,
faces became tomatoes.
Smooth, pale cheeks slowly changed, into big, bright, red tomatoes.
Small, round and pointy noses, slowly changed, into little, bright cherry tomatoes.
I could feel my face, slowly changing, into one big, bright, ripe tomato.
Outside, in the chilly air,
faces became tomatoes!

I love sledding

By Grace

I love sledding

I love sledding because if you fall, everyone laughs, even you

I love sledding because you can be as loud as you want, and nobody cares

I love sledding because of all the flops, falling, and flying in to the bright, white and not always soft snow

I love sledding because there is always more than one person on a sled, but not for long

I love sledding because all the teachers fall with us, and don't get mad

But most of all I love sledding because all the people and friends

Poems by Ben A

Snowboarding was being tried Landings and wipeout Entertaining fails
Dangerously fast sleds whoosh!!!!
Incredible 3 sled trains Nice day in crisp November air Going fast down the hill happily!!!!

Down the hill I go
I love wiping out Shooting super-FAST! Down, Down
That looked like fun!

Wipeout
I got on the board and I shot down the hill - fast and then, well wipeout

Hot chocolate
Hot chocolate inside warm and delightful slurp, slurp yum, yum what a day!!!

Sledding Fun!

by Madison

Chills swirl around me cheers in the air sleds moving swiftly kids being fair

Snow in my face let's have a race snowflakes like lace falling with grace

Friends having fun too bad no more sun but winter games they lie ahead I'll sled all day till time for bed!

Sledding Fun

By Skylar

Here it comes the main event that big hill will be ours

Kids everywhere having fun sledding down that big hill races, trains, and don't forget sled boarding

Chilly faces rosy noses don't forget frozen toes

The fun must end it's time to go but we'll be back for that big main event

Sledding

By Emma W

Sledding down the hill everything whizzing by me
I whoosh to a stop

A good friend and I quickly whizz down the big hill to make snow angels

I stand on the sled waiting then whoosh I take off I whizz down the hill hooooo

My hot chocolate steaming hot, burning my tongue stings my mouth marshmallows melting slowly into white sweetness

It Snowed last night. That means in fifth grade it is SLEDDING DAY! Classmates brought sleds, and we all dressed for the cold. I Love sledding! We even get hot chocolate with marshmallows at the end.

When all of the fifth grade classes get outside, we all run out to the hill. I was one of the first to go down the hill. "Emma, let's make a sled train," said a friend. I say OK! After all of the fun outside, we go back inside and have hot chocolate while writing poetry. ToDay was winter's inspiration!

Snowboarding

By Kellen

So fun I never wanted to stop Nobody wants to leave On the hill people flip and fling Wondering when my turn will come Boards fly in the air after people fall Outside in the cold wet snow
All of the people are sledding Rarely people would make it all of the way down Daredevils go down the steepest part of the hill
In the glimmering snow everyone has so much fun Never will I leave the snowy state of Wisconsin Giving my sled to someone else I have to find another

The big long Train

By Kellen

Too many people going down at once Racing down with 5 other people
As the train breaks up everyone flops on their backs
In the sleds 3 people lay Nobody is not having fun

I like the sledding Close to the bottom of the hill Everyone in!

Winter Haikus

By Saby

A Sledding Haiku

Speeding down the hill, 1,000 miles per hour,
Never going to stop.

A Snowflake Haiku

Snowflakes falling down Forming magnificent shapes Shining like the sun.

An Ice Haiku

Slipping and sliding,
All day long on the white ice,
I can't stop slipping.

A Hot chocolate Haiku

The milky warmness,
Is flooding through your body,
Tasty as ever.

The Snowy Poetry

By Kia

Yay! It's coming that big hill we've all been waiting for will be taken over by us

It's so snowy outside and so many sleds to sled on everybody is sledding different ways and everybody sharing sleds

A lot of sledding prints on the snow as people are sledding I see snowflakes in their hair and I also saw red, red rosy noses and I felt my hands getting numb and cold

As we come in from sledding we drunk some hot hot chocolate, as I was drinking, I felt it melting in my body and it made me really cozy and warm

When I went home
I felt so happy
I told my mom all about it and she was really happy that I was happy that was the best school day so far

Thrill

By Emma E

Beginning

The snow crunches
As I hurry as fast as my fat, snow-panty legs can carry me “Hurry!” “Let’s go!”

Middle

The chilly snow
Sprays in my face
As the world spins around me Letting go
I let instinct steer me
This is one of those times Losing control is alright
I disappear into my own world Asking for more and more Adrenaline is a fast moving current through me I’m in a spinning stream Crashing and turning
The bitter cold
Doesn’t matter Rushing
Spinning
Gone

End

Trudging inside
I am refreshed Renewed
A rosy blush from the biting cold Has formed on my nose
And cheeks
The thrill
A wonderful memory

Sled

By Brooke

Super-duper FUN. I went sledding the other day I had a lot of fun!

Lightning fast! I went sledding down the hill and I went super-fast!

Entertaining! I could have been outside sledding for hours!

Diamonds! The snow sparkled like diamonds!

Winter Inspiration Poems

Lily H.

Living in Winter

The brisk winter air reddens my cheeks, numbs me from my feet to my face.
The hill below me is calling, waiting for me to slide down at uncontrollable speeds.

Other kids are laughing, having fun, but all I know is my sled, the hill, and the powdery snow.
I feel adrenaline and I know this is living.
The winter wind howling, the snow flurrying down to below, the kids laughing, the brisk winter air.
This is what winter is all about!

Flurrying

The snow is coming down in little white puffs in flurries
Soft as a blanket it gently covers the ground recovering our tracks leaving no trace that we were ever here When we step down the snow muffles the sound
The snow gently sitting there
In flurries

Winter day

By Cady

Kids were slip, slip, sliding on sleds down the slippery snow covered hill.
their happy shouts surround me making me smile.
I race some friends down the hill, then plopped down in snow.
I silently have sweet dreams about hot chocolate, sitting still with hopefully, marshmallows.
A shout surprises us who are sitting soundly at the bottom of the steep hill.
It is optional for those who wish to go indoors to the warm, warm classroom.

Sledding

by Cady

Snow falling softly to the ground Laughter fills the air
Everyone is enjoying the break from working Dancing in the air are snowflakes Diving down the hill and kerplunking in the snow Spinning down the slippery snow covered hill Nobody could be recognized they were going to fast
The Ground is spinning before my eyes as I speed down the hill

Winter Poems

by Emilia

Winter winds blowing Snow beautifully floating Snowing gracefully

Happy times are here
Time for happiness and cheer Dancing, laughing, fun

Giggles and laughter Happiness now and after Cheer in everyone

Silliness, ha ha
Singing carols, la la la Snug and cozy, ah

Reading in winter
Cozy and warm in our beds
Happy, cozy, warm

Footsteps in the snow
Watch the snow carefully blow Skating, skiing, whoosh

Holidays galore
Merry, happy times about Go ahead and shout

No more in the gloom
It's time to go and play, yay
Have a happy day

Joy Of Snow

By Bani

When Mr. C said, "Hi," with a smile on his face
I could see it
I could see the excitement on our faces Myself with thrill Running through my body
Like going up in a rollercoaster

* * *

"Come on, come on snow pants get on for goodness sake" Those words echoed through the hallways
I was included.

* * *

Kids on top of kids on top of kids Kids climbing on top of each other just to get out Snow pants swishing back and forth FREEDOM!
Everybody was out running with excitement

* * *

Sharing is caring Sharing sleds is also caring
And that's what we were doing But . . .
We were not sharing snot
Mr. C gave me some twists My reaction?
"AHHHHHHHHHHHHH"

* * *

We went in and took of our gear and had hot chocolate Being with other people is better than being by yourself
I closed my eyes and thanked Mr. C

Winter
by Batool

I can't believe it's winter already Summer and fall went by so fast My cheeks are bright red same with my nose
I can't believe its winter already

Coming again and again by surprise Over and over again down that hill Loud voices of kids rushing down the hill Days are shorter now

Winter Inspiration

by Aileen

I see the snow falling from the sky, the winter weather is as cold as ice cream the sky was foggy I asked the sun to come out but it won't so I lay there.
At a far distance I hear laughter
I run in the breeze hopefully I don't freeze!
When it's time to go in I say goodbye

Sledding

By Jordan

I got in the sled.
I was sledding down the hill.
I went down again.

I wanted to sled.
I was standing on a sled.
I wiped-out sledding.

It was so much fun.
Sledding is the best ever.
Sledding is awesome.

I got hot cocoa.
The hot cocoa was awesome.
Marshmallows are good.

Looking at the snow.
The snow was inviting me.
So cold in the snow.

Sledding Fun

Poems By Sigrid

Friends having much fun
Snow brushing against my face
Sledding is awesome

Winter wonderland
Sparkling, cool snow glistens White desert sandstorm

Glistening, icy Snowflakes swirl all around me Calmish, glittering

Kids all wiping out Playing in the white desert
All having good times

Cool, cold, chilly wind Running across my forehead
But I stick with it

I'm gonna do it Standing up on the big sled
Yes, I'm snowboarding

Faster I must go Don't get snow down your jacket Zooming past, so fast

Tiny snowflakes twirl Clouds overtake the blue sky Wind rushing again

Waiting in the line
Small snowflakes are on the fly Finally my turn

No, the teacher calls
Time to go into the school
I had loads of fun

Winter Day

By Anna S

Ahhhh! Down, down, down the sled goes, where it will end nobody knows.

I hear cheers of joy and cries of laughter.
What other way to spend a beautiful cold winter day.

Even though there aren't enough sleds to go around,
the way people share will truly astound.

Once you go down, there is no telling where you will be found.

The icy breeze will definitely freeze, so be aware and also prepare, for a beautiful cold winter day.

After playing in the snow, we were welcomed by a warm mug of hot coco.
It was very nice, to be out of the ice and to have a cup of hot chocolate by your side.

After sledding,
it was time for writing.
As we wrought our poems,
we were also thinking.
What a beautiful cold winter day it was today.

Poetry In Winter By Natalie

One wintry day I went sledding with the whole V.H.E fifth grade.
I was going down the hill and the wind splashed me in the face, the snow crunched under the sled, I was zooming so fast I did not even feel it.
When I saw my friends go, they whipped down the hill like a cheetah running through Africa at top speed.
Mr. C spun me down the hill like a merry-go-round spinning super-fast.
Everyone started to snow board on the sleds.
Anna pushed herself down the hill and stayed on the snowboard-sled, everyone who saw her do it clapped.
I had a terrific Tuesday sledding down the slippery snowy slope.

Hot Chocolate
by Natalie

Hot hot hot be careful not to drop the hot hot chocolate.
Original hot chocolate mixes in my cup while marshmallows fill to the top.
The sled hill is abandoned while people are inside.

Careful to not drop the hot hot chocolate even when it burns your skin.
Hopeful people drink their hot chocolate with care and delight.
Ordinary people love the warmth of hot chocolate in their mouths.
Colors dance in my head after I drink my hot chocolate toasty and warm.
Over the top hot chocolate dances on my tongue.
Laughing was so much fun while people were drinking their hot chocolate.
Amazing hot chocolate swirls down my throat warming my body.
The sled hill is empty while kids and teachers are inside.
Everyone seems so happy while they drink their hot chocolate.

Sledding Paradise

by Rowan

The snow was crystal clear
The weather was pretty dull and cloudy
The sledding was pretty fun Did wipe outs and rolls
And to finish it off: hot chocolate

Winter's Inspiration By Dylan

Sledding

We went out to sled
It was snowy outside
I sledded downhill
There were many people there It was fun out there

Hot Chocolate

We went back inside
We lined up near the table
We took hot chocolate
We went to our desks and drank
It was very good

I see Everyone having fun
Now the Day is done

Zoom

By Lucie

Ready set here I go zooming past all those who approach I'm going very far faster than the fastest race car I open my eyes carefully and see speeding frozen crystals all beside me

I come to a sudden stop and climb the slippery slope clutching the sled in one hand praying not to drop it once I get to the top it's not so fine just because there's a giant line!

Sledding Poems

By Vaughn

Sledding is so cool
Trying to build good snow jumps
It was so much fun

So much snow outside Sledding, Sledding, more Sledding
All afternoon long

The snow white but ruined Sledding was really awesome
We had so much fun

The snow was so white Jack Frost must have come last night
Sledding is awesome

Jack Frost came last night
He made everything snow white
So we went sledding

Winter

By Katja

Wonderful white flakes of snow dancing to earth.

Icy chills creeping down my back.

Nothing moves, but the cold breath of Jack Frost.

Trees without branches shiver and huddle, trying to keep out of the cold.

Endless white, goes on forever.

Roaring laughter fills the air as kids stampede down to the hill, carrying sleds, preparing for the fun of winter.

Cold, icy wind, blows in my face as I crash into snow, again and again.
The world is a wonderland of white.
Sparkling, whirling snow, shrieks of laughter, fun...
It's the inspiration of winter.

Run like the wind

We all want to sled
In the winter everybody laughs Nothing can stop us from laughing

By Aiden

Room 112, 110, and 109 went out to sled
When we got outside my hands turned red I couldn't wait to sled down the hill
I thought it would be a big thrill till...

Whoosh! Crash! Slam!

Vimas and I couldn't feel our toes Man I should have worn warmer clothes Then Mr.C said we could go in
As we got in I tripped over the lunch bin

I almost forgot we were going to drink hot chocolate
I was cold so I put on my jacket
There is totally no better way To spend this great winter day

Cold Windy Day

by Ranaiya

Wind howling, sleds crunching on the snow Feet smashing through the snow People laughing having a good nice time Hands freezing like ice
People falling down the snowy big hill/mountains People throwing snow balls going in people's face like a cold fountain People talking about how cold it is

By Benjamin

Winter sledding so fun and so chilly.
When we go up and go down my hands are freezing.
But all of second I want an Izee.

Sledding oh so fun but not with gum.
I like sledding when I have a bun.
I do not like sledding when my fingers and nose get oh so cold.
The snow crunches
and munches when I go down a hill.
It jumps in the air like a hare.

Sledding makes me feel relaxed in a way that makes me feel good and cool.
It makes me calm when I go down a hill.
The sound of the snow behind me makes a sound like boots walking in the snow crunch, munch, frunch.

I like to go sledding when it's chilly with my friend good Oh Billy because he makes me feel so silly.
We have lots of fun in no sun eating our marshmallows on a bun.

one day room 110 went out to sled, and all of our faces immediately turned red.
whoosh, tumble, laugh, the kid where flying everywhere, on the first way down, fast, fast, fast I went until that fateful bump, when I fell of the sled, everything was white and it was over so fast, that it was like the breeze flowing through a sieve.

snow forts, snowball fights, and fun winter is the best!

Snowy goodness
No not having fun Outdoor awesomeness Winter for the win!

happy kids everywhere awesome stunts all the time fast sledding everywhere

Winter's Inspiration

By Kento

Snow

Snowballs, Snowboard, Snow forts, Sledding, Sliding on ice,

Nobody isn't having fun, Not as good without hot chocolate,

Outstanding amounts of snow, Okay, but better than spring and fall,

Weather is the best, Wipeouts don't hurt in the winter, Winter is the best,

Sledding

Sledding is awesome
Sliding down a slope with thrill
And do it again

Sledding

All the exhilaration rushing me, the cold air fanning me,
the snowy conditions made a good sledding path,
I jump on my sled and hit the snow which splattered everywhere,
When the sled glides gracefully down the hill and comes to a gradual stop,
I get up and do it again

Sledding

By Zach

Sledding was a great time.
Leo and Benjamin.
Ending of sledding down the hill.
Down the hill.
Diving.
Ice.
Nice time with friends.
Going down the hill with my friends.

Sledding Haikus

by Yosef

Sledding

going down the hill slipping crazy I love it crash landing ouchie!

Hot Cocoa

so sweet tastes good love the way the cocoa smells warms your body

Sledding time

By Abby

Whee!
Zoom! down the hill we go with a bump and a jump laughing, shouting, having fun

These are things you might see or hear when people are sledding, races sledding and chilly chills sled track after sled track after sled track until finally someone goes over and makes a new sled track after sled track after sled track yelling and shouting talking loudly down the white icy tracks with colorful beautiful sleds spinning spinning spinning until finally you stop

It is all over unless you go up the hill again and again, and again and again

Chilly
Red Freezing faces boots that step in snow and make it turn a brownish black then they slowly melt

Jackets that keep us warm from the icy, chilly snow that is run over again and again and again by sleds.

Now we go inside
we have had a lot of fun but it is not fully done... HOT CHOCOLATE!

Poems by James

Wipe Out

Whoosh "look out!"
Twisting and turning "don't hit him" Swoosh "whoa that was close"
Wipeout!
"Ah!" snow down my shirt

Hot Chocolate

Hot chocolate so sweet
You can feel it down your throat Warms you to the bone

Sledding

Flurries everywhere
People slipping and sliding People having fun

Sledding

Sliding flying feeling so alive
Twirling whirling everyone is flying Whooshing and swooshing we are all flying

The Fun of Winter

I am having fun
Flying down the big icy hill
So fun
Nothing beats the cold fun of winter

Sledding

by Garrett

I was on the sled there I went and crashed

Oww!

My leg is hurt
I'm not feeling so good

Thanks you for the ride
It is a sled train down the hill

Wow!

All the people crash

My turn Fine you go

Woosh!

Yay crash!!
Come on in

I am cold
The heater feels good
I am warm
We have real hot chocolate.

Poems by Aidan B

Sliding down the slippery slidy snow.
Letting the snow go down my back was a bad idea.
Everyone was having a great time.
Diving in the snow was not fun and it made you cold Daring, it was daring to go down the hill on a sled like it was a snowboard.
Ice, the ICEy hill was very slippery.
Numb, everybody's faces were NUMB from falling in the cold snow.
Good, I had a GOOD time sledding and we should do it again.

Sledding Haiku

kids were snowboarding snowflakes falling from the sky sledding was a blast

Hot chocolate

it was really nice it warmed you right up to the bone it was so awesome!!

Snow

by Eun Seo Lee

Snow, sleds, snowmen, snowballs, snowflakes.

November, nice, new snow, nothing but fun and happiness.

Outdoors, outstanding.

Winter, wonderful, winter wonderland.

By Catherine

I ride down the hill,
With my friends,
Will we wipeout?
That depends.

We wipeout,
But we don't pout!
We laugh and smile!
We smile a mile!

Sophie P.
And me,
We have a race!
To see who can get to the bottom without falling on their face!

We have to go inside,
But I take one more slide!
Down the hill I go,
Face-first into the snow!

Inside we drink cocoa,
So we go loco!

ICE CUBE

BY JEREMIAH

*When I went outside I felt the cool breeze pass by.
On my first try
I decided to go ahead and glide.*

*I went so fast
I thought I was gonna crash.
I felt like I got a lash when I hit the ground real fast.*

*When I got up
I felt like Ice Cube's ice cube.
When the snow hit my face my brain turned into a milkshake!*

BY NANA KOFI

AHH, SLEDDING
WHAT FUN YOU CAN HAVE WITH SLEDDING
YOU COULD SLED DOWN SOLO OR YOU CAN SLED DOWN WITH FRIENDS

SLEDDING CAN BE A SPORT
IF YOU ADD SOME STYLE
SLEDDING CAN BE A CHALLENGE
IF YOU USE YOUR SLED AS A SNOWBOARD

SLEDDING COULD ALSO BE FUN
IF YOU FALL OFF YOUR SLED
JUST BE CAREFUL AND BE SURE THAT YOU DON'T CRASH INTO YOUR FRIENDS

SLEDDING IS EXCITING
SLEDDING MAKE US HAPPY WHEN YOU'RE SLEDDING, IT GETS FUN
THEN YOU START LAUGHING

AH, SLEDDING
WHAT FUN YOU CAN HAVE WITH SLEDDING.

Winter's Inspiration

Winter wonderland!
Inspiration Everywhere!
Take Time To Enjoy!
Everyone Is Laughing!
Remember This Day Forever!

“Woosh!” I ripped through the snow on my sled.
“Kapow!” I flew through the air.
I fell into the rich, deep snow.
I heard laughing so I laughed too.
I was hauled to my feet.
A blast of icy cold air hit me.
I shivered.
I was dragged up the hill to go again.

Sledding down a hill

Lumps after lumps of snow

Everyone laughing

Down, down, down

Sledding as if the Snow Meant It

By Molly

The snow
Didn't really flow
When we went sledding
I bailed
My friends sled failed
When we went sledding
Some kids blew
Like they were blew by an unfriendly gust of wind

After sledding
We all went fledging Back into the school for cocoa

An Extra Marshmallow

By Molly

It is kinda hard to wait
Knowing that marshmallows are sitting there, looking tasty
I just couldn't resist
I pop the marshmallow into my mouth
I have a sudden NEED for that tasty dozen of marshmallow Well, it now appears I will only have a few marshmallows to eat With that tempting cup of cocoa
This is Winter with me

Super Man Sledding by David

Shoosh Whoosh as I went off the jump
I flew like Super Man soundly All I could see was white snow like Doomsday DON DON DON!!!!!!

Super

November

Outrageous

Wonders

Glory Shining

by Rosie

Get ready Grip tight Push off
Snow crunching Lift off Flying high Glory shining
Warming everything
And everyone Bump, bump Earth again Slow stop Get out Stand up Glory shining Always shining

by Rosie

Snow dancing
Down to the earth Blanketing it
In a chilly white cloak Sparkling
When the sun Shines down
On it Over time
It will melt
And disappear
After all Snow Never Stays
Forever

Friday Sledding Freddy Style

By Freddy

Out the door
F-A-S-T
As Freddy can be!
Woohoo!
Freddy can't wait
To hit the hill!
Freddy can't wait
To try new tricks
On his sled Learned them at his old school.
He was wet nose running cold Freddy didn't care
He loved it!
